Anitra Butler, PER Exalted Ruler

My Brothers and Sister,

Welcome to 2017. I hoped that the members of Elkdom, enjoyed Happy and Healthy Holidays with their families. The Children and Adult Holiday parties were well attended and very festive due in part to Amy Schneller whom was an excellent chair. Lodge members stepped up to assist and show what Elkdom is all about. The Lodge Officers and members welcomed DDGER William Bock, back home to the lodge and proved it by performing a ritual that took home the first place trophy. The Veterans committee spent their time wrapping and distributing X-Mas gifts to the veterans at the VA Hospital and NYS Nursing homes. Gifts were also to given to a veteran's homeless shelter. Al Hoffmann PDDGER, chaired our Memorial service on Dec 4th, and as usual did a fantastic job. Thanks to Ellen and Gary Galuzzo, who helped with the food and set-up. The SE District Major Projects committee, has been hosting events at different lodges, as a group effort to raise additional funds, for the district as a whole. I would like the members to consider attending these events to Major Projects/ CP. During the month of February, NY State Pres. Bill Reedy will be visiting the SE District. New York Lodge # 1 will be welcoming him on Fri., Feb 24 at our Jolly Corks Anniversary Dinner. On Sat , Feb 25. The Major Projects Committee will be welcoming him, at Massapequa lodge.

The lodge is also honoring members of our lodge on" PIN Nite", Fri., Jan 13. The names of the honorees are listed in the bulletin. On Jan 28t,h the lodge will be holding a Comedy Nite, please see Chair Dennis Mescall, if you haven't already gotten your tickets. If you missed out on not seeing the ritual, you can get another chance, watching the PER's perform on January 19th. You still have a little time to get your Super Bowl tickets for Feb. 5th.

It is that time of the year, that we, reflect on gifts of love and freedom that we so take for granted. As Elks, we are aware of the struggles, that many of the less fortunate are enduring. The lodge is constantly collecting canned and non- perishable goods for the food pantry at Our Lady of Peace. Hunger does not happen during the holidays, but 24/7. Clean new or used coats can be dropped off at the lodge, and given to one of the many outreach programs that the lodge supports. The clothes are not just for adults. The lodge veteran's committee has given personal care packages to the veterans, 12 months a year. We are a fraternal organization that is concerned about our fellow man. Don't talk about being an Elk, "Be an ELK". Be Proud, Be Loud.

Veterans Corner

by Richard Muniak, Loyal Knight

Happy New Year Wishes to All at New York Lodge #1. We wrapped up the old year appropriately by wrapping 131 presents on December 13th for our hospitalized Veterans. This SE District event was attended with volunteers from five of the SE District's Lodges: New York #1, Brooklyn-Queensboro #878, Hicksville #1931, New Hyde Park-North Shore #2107 and Massapequa #2162. The SE District leaders, District Deputy Bill Bock and State VP Willie Schmidt rolled up their sleeves and pitched in.

Seventy-one gifts were distributed at the December 15th monthly "Thursday Breakfast Social". The remaining gifts were handed out at the monthly "Monday Night Bingo". Gifts left over were brought to the Domiciliary for the homeless Veterans.

Important dates to fill into your fresh, new 2017 calendars:

April 26, 2017: The annual Veterans Dinner/Show with a sit-down dinner and show for the Veterans invited from all of the area VA Hospitals and from the NY State Veterans Home.

April 28, 2017: Friday Night: A fundraiser dinner/show at the Lodge to defray the costs of serving our Veterans during the year. All Lodge members along with family, friends and neighbors are welcome to attend.

June 10, 2017: The annual SE District Veterans barbecue/picnic at St. Albans for the Veterans and their family members. This District-wide event draws volunteers from the member lodges. Let's have a larger representation from New York #1 Lodge in 2017.

October 6, 2017: The SE District Veterans Committee Friday night fundraising Buffet Dinner at New York Lodge #1 which is open to the public as well.

November 5, 2017: Sunday morning: The annual NY #1 Lodge "Veterans Pancake Breakfast".

Thank you my Brother and Sister Elks for your support in the past year. We accomplished a lot. Lets use that as a springboard toward further improving the quality of life for those who stepped up and put their lives on the line for us.
