148th ANNIVERSARY

Issue 7 - October 2016

Anitra Butler, PER Exalted Ruler

Dear Members,

Summer is over and hopefully the super hot days, that we endured, are over. Our 9-11 service was nicely attended and thanks to the support of members; Geppy

Clemente and Tommy West, nobody went hungry. Thanks for stepping up to the plate. Our benefit to raise funds for Cerebral Palsy was a success, due to the many lodge members who donated their time and services for this special event. Chairman, Brian Steckler, with his staff, planned a great event. The Committee paid homage to Stephen Hayes, who for years assisted with this event and loved to grill. All of the lodge members, assisted either by cooking, cleaning up, serving food, selling raffle tickets, securing donations or by selling or promoting the event. This what makes a lodge great.

We have another event coming up very quickly, on Oct. 7th. The SE District Annual Veterans Fundraiser Dinner/ Dance. I encourage the members to sign-up in the lounge or contact the event chairman to reserve a spot or table. If a member does not let the chairman know if they are attending or whom they wish to sit with, it makes it difficult for the chairman to set tables, calculate food preparation and ascertain the cost of the event. Italian Night will be held on Sa . Oct 15th. There are sign-up sheets in the lounge. The trip to Atlantic City is scheduled for Oct 16th. The Bus leaves at 9: am. If we do not have enough members to sign-up, the trip might have to be cancelled. On Oct. 26, we will be honoring our local Firefighters. The event is being chaired by Larry Meyers, PER.

A tentative date of Sat. Oct 22 is being set for a defensive driving seminar/ course, by AARP. The time is 9 am and lunch will be serve. The cost of the event is to be determined.

The SE District Major Project Committee will be holding fundraising outside events such as: "A Brunch at Tony Cubans" on Oct 2, located on the nautical mile, and Dec 18, an NY Islanders NHL game. The Flyers for these events are in the lounge and will publicized in the bulletin.

Try to bring a friend or neighbor to our events. Membership is our lifeblood. We have a beautiful lodge, be proud and share the experience.

Fraternally Yours,

Anitra Butler ER

9/11 Remembrance

National Patriotism Week

On Sunday, September 11, 2016, Brothers and Sisters, gathered outside Elks Lodge # 1 in remembrance of the 15th Anniversary of the “9/11” attacks on this Great Nation. Anitra Butler, PER, Exalted Ruler, spoke of the sacrifices of the first responders and their families incurred over the years and how the loss continue due to respiratory failure and cancer caused by the debris. This day marks that loss of over 3,000, innocent men, women, children and First Responders, who perished when they went out just to earn a living that fitful morning. “We Will Never Forget.”

It was very important for Town of Hempstead neighbors to stop by New York Elks Lodge #1 in Lynbrook to support their BBQ this afternoon....the money raised is being put towards efforts that fight cerebral palsy.
